Conversion of the former Adath Jeshurun Synagogue building on King Edward Avenue into the long-awaited Jewish Community Memorial Chapel is proceeding well according to word received from the Gaboyim of the Ottawa Chevra Kadisha.

Workmen have been on the job for several weeks replacing plumbing, installing partitions, laying tile and generally turning the building into operating shape. When completed within a matter of weeks, the Jewish Community will have at its disposal complete and adequate facilities for the proper conduct of last rites and funeral services.

In order to meet immediate construction payments, the Chevra Kadisha urges everyone who has pledged money for this project to remit their cheques at once. Others who wish to assist in the holy work may do so by sending their contributions to the Ottawa Chevra Kadisha, 151 Chapel Street.

AN OPEN LETTER FROM THE B'NAI B'RITH BLOOD BANK CHAIRMAN

Do you know about the blood bank that is conducted by the B'nai Brith in Ottawa?

The whole city has benefitted from our B'nai B'rith Blood Bank, in fact in the past one and a half years almost 100 pints of blood have been given upon request to Jewish patients at no charge to them whatsoever. That represents a savings to these people of over $2,500.00 Besides the financial savings, the knowledge that such a bank exists for emergencies is a very comforting thought.

Despite repeated pleas to the city at large, the stream of volunteers giving a pint of blood remains small.

You need not be a member of B'nai B'rith to draw blood.

Any member of our Jewish Community can, by simply phoning me, draw as much blood as they may require or may have used whilst in the hospital.

But our B'nai Brith Lodge must maintain this bank, and so I am appealing to all to help us keep a healthy credit in the B'nai Brith Blood Bank.

IN MEMORIUM — (Eulogy Extract)

HORAV BORUCH KRAVETZ

The sudden and tragic death of our beloved Horav Boruch Kravetz has plunged not only his family but our whole Ottawa community into mourning. He has been ruthlessly plucked from our midst in the prime of his life with so many dreams and hopes unfulfilled. "Mispayd Hayom L'beis Yisroel" — the whole House of Israel will say Kaddish. We have all become orphaned.

If there was a trait that characterized Rabbi Kravetz above all others, it was his love of learning for its own sake, "Torah Lishmo". He was always the "masmid", the inquisitive unsatiated student. He was the true "Talmid Chochom" who made the ancient maxim "and the study of Torah surpasses all" as the motto of his life.

For him, learning and scholarship were pre-eminent, everything else was only secondary. "Torah V'chochmo Hisachdu Bo" — Torah and Wisdom were united within him; whether it was in the field of Halacha or Torah wisdom; Hebrew Literature or Platonic philosophy; Biblical criticism or the latest theory in the psychology of education — his was an enveloping and embracing regnancy over all. His range and breadth of knowledge seemed limitless.

As a great teacher he undertook to instill in our young the will to be Jews today, tomorrow and forever and ever. There are few men indeed who had his single-minded devotion to a constant ideal the propagation of Jewish knowledge, "lehagdil Torah ulhaadira" to magnify and glorify the Torah to both young and old.

One can speak endlessly of the inspiring contagion he gave to his students, the young in the classroom and the adults at the Sabbath Talmud class. He was the teacher of teachers par excellence and listening to his clear explanations and his pithy insights was a true privilege.

He worked for maximum Jewish education under oft trying circumstances of cramped physical quarters. He laboured for over 18 years with a labour of love for the Jewishness of our children with incessant zeal and guided the destiny of our Talmud Torah with great vision and personal self sacrifice. He made our Talmud Torah and Day School the pride and credit of Ottawa Jewry. Surely, the new and commodious Talmud Torah Wing of Ottawa's Building and Expansion Program will be an eternal and living monument — a tribute so richly deserved.

His was a philosophy dedicated to Shalom and communal harmony. Ever was he cognizant of the challenging need to maintain the wholeness and solidarity of our Kehila Communal structure. Whenever feasible he would exert every effort to coalesce divisive elements and to harmonize differing ideologies. Is it therefore any wonder that his influence radiated forth to all classes and elements of our community? Verily, he was one of the most respected figures in Ottawa and Canadian Jewry.

We shall all miss his wise and mature counsel. Who could match his brightness of wit so clearly reflected in his alert eyes. Who could ever forget his buoyant, trenchant and effervescent sense of humour. Who could equal the example of his wondrous scholarship, his passion for clear and incisive thought. Who will ever forget his masterful addresses and lectures, full of brilliance, maturity and depth. We shall miss his flashes of insight into a problem and his originality of approach. We shall miss his guiding hand, the warmth of his sympathy, the keenness of his intellect and the excellence of his mind. We shall miss him as a trusted friend who has inscribed himself so indelibly into so many hearts now full of grief. He upheld so many hands in service to the community now atremble with the shock of his sudden passing.

And our prayer goes up to our Father in Heaven — May He send comfort to the stricken family. May they find inspiration in the knowledge that they were to him the dearest on earth, the whole happiness of his life. Grant that the dreams he dreamt, the hopes he hoped and the service he rendered — live on through our labours and that his life remain a dynamic inspiration to the whole House of Israel.

May his memory be blessed forever. Amen.

RABBI SIMON L. ECKSTEIN.

Please phone me at 8-5907, and I will make all arrangements to transport you to the hospital, at any time convenient to you, and bring you back.

"It doesn't hurt".

Chairman, B'nai Brith Blood Bank

CHANUKAH
NOVEMBER 29 — DECEMBER 6
ITS HISTORY
AND SIGNIFICANCE

First Candle, Wednesday evening, November 28

On the 25th of Kislev, in the year 168 before the Common Era, troops of Antiochus Epiphanes, ruler of Syria and conqueror of Palestine, set up an image of the Greek god Jupiter in the Holy Temple in Jerusalem. This was the most flagrant act of desecration in an intensive program of exterminating the Jewish way of life and introducing in its place Hellenistic culture and religion.

This was the most flagrant — but there was much more. A royal decree proclaimed the death sentence for anyone practicing the Jewish religion. It was unlawful to keep the Sabbath or any of the Holidays. Jews had to offer sacrifices at Greek altars and celebrate all Greek festivals (among them Antiochus' birthday — every month!). Overseers were appointed to make sure that the new laws were carried out. Torah scrolls were torn to pieces and burned, their owners put to death. A group of Jews who tried to keep the Sabbath in a hidden cave near Jerusalem were caught and burned to death. Antiochus the Madman (as some called him) was determined to uproot the Jewish religion.

But he did not figure on a small band of brave men. These were Mattathias the Hasmonean, an old Kohen (Priest) who lived in the village of Modin and his five sons. Mattathias himself killed both the king's agent and the first Jew who came to worship the Greek altar in Modin. With his sons and other faithful Jews, Mattathias fled to the hills and began an open revolt against the Syrians. When Mattathias died soon after, his son Judah took over leadership of the rebels, who were called the Maccabees. The name was devised from the initial letters of their slogan: "Mi Komocho B'ō'elilim HaShem?" — Who is like unto Thee among the mighty, O Lord?"

The name was especially appropriate to Judah Maccabee, for maccabee also means "hammer" in Hebrew, and Judah hammered at Antiochus' hordes until he gained military victory for the Jewish forces. This military victory was one of the miracles of Chanukah. For the Maccabees, outnumbered 15 to 1, fighting a hit-and-run guerilla warfare, defeated the mighty armies of Antiochus and drove them from the Holy Land.

Palestine was free once more. The Maccabees had brought victory to the Jews. And how did they celebrate this victory? They turned to the Holy Temple. Patiently, lovingly, they rebuilt the shattered gates and walls. They cleaned the holy courts and prepared to begin again the sacrifices and the ceremonies.

But when they looked for oil to light the Menorah (Candelabra) they found only one small pitcher bearing the seal of the Kohen Gadol (High Priest) — enough to burn only one day. And so, until new, pure oil could be made, the second miracle of Chanukah took place. The oil from one little pitcher — enough for only one day — burned for a full eight days!

On the 25th of Kislev, in the year 165 before the Common Era — exactly three years after the first terrible desecration — the Menorah was rekindled in the Holy Temple.

And thus, for the miracle of the heroic victory of the Maccabees against the enemy and for the miracle of the oil, we celebrate a festival of eight days each year, beginning on the 25th of Kislev (corresponding this year to Wednesday evening, November 28), a festival of thanks and praise to the Almighty — the Festival of Chanukah.

PANEL TO DISCUSS "THE SACRIFICE" AT BOOK MONTH OBSERVANCE DECEMBER 4

A highly interesting program to mark the observance of Jewish Book Month has been arranged for Thursday evening, December 4 according to an announcement by Mrs. Morris Zagerman, Chairman of the Jewish Community Centre's Library Committee.

"The Sacrifice", current best seller by Adele Wiseman of Winnipeg will be discussed by a panel composed of such personalities as Rabbi Samuel M. Burstein, moderator, Mrs. Irving I. Betcherman, Riva Schreiber, Dr. Samuel Mirsky and Frank Brodie.

Mrs. Hyman Gould will chair the meeting to be held in the Jewish Community Centre beginning at 8:30 p.m. The program will begin with the lighting of the Seventh Chanukah Candle and a song by Cantor Hyman Gertler.

Those attending will also be treated to a monologue presentation by Mrs. Joseph Greenblatt. Mrs. Morris Zagerman will also participate.

A display of some of the numerous books available in the Library and a visit to the Library itself will round out an enjoyable evening designed to bring the significance of Jewish Book Month to the attention of the entire community.

Separate observances are being arranged for the various age groups which form the Centre's Youth Department.

"The Sacrifice" is the first novel by a Winnipeg girl in her mid-twenties. A mature and moving record of human experience, it is a uniquely North American story about the remnants of a family of Ukrainian Jews newly-emigrated to Canada and settled in Winnipeg. It is the story of a husband and wife, who having lost two beloved and promising sons centre their hopes on the boy remaining to them; the son who rebels against his father's ideals yet sacrifices himself to preserve what his father most prizes.

The almost biblical story is both comic and pathetic and will undoubtedly produce spirited controversy amongst the panel members.

The Library Committee is composed of Mrs. Morris Zagerman, Mrs. Hyman Gould, Mrs. Hyman Bessin, Mrs. M. Sidney Green, Mrs. Bertram I. Loeb, Mrs. Herbert Zagerman and Mrs. Morris M. Zbar. Advisory members are Rabbi Simon L. Eckstein, Rabbi Samuel M. Burstein, Hyman Gould and Bertram I. Loeb. Mrs. Joseph Loomer is the Librarian.

An enthusiastic Brownie Pack, under the leadership of Brown Owl Shelley Mayberger, is meeting regularly every Sunday afternoon at the Agudath Israel Synagogue.

The Junior Sisterhood of the Congregation has resumed activities again this fall; and a new group, the Intermediate Sisterhood, has been formed to accommodate slightly older teenagers. These groups are under the guidance of Mrs. Norman Loeb and Mrs. John Caplan.

B'nai Jacob Sisterhood

A very successful membership tea was held in the Vestry of the Synagogue with the President, Mrs. A. Cherun receiving the members and guests.

The first regular monthly meeting was held on October 8 with Mrs. S. L. Eckstein as guest of honour. Presentations were made to Mrs. David Geishon on the occasion of her 25th wedding anniversary and to Mrs. S. Finkelman on her recent marriage.

The President announced that the main projects of painting the interior of the Synagogue, the laying of carpets in the women's sections and the redecorating of the Talmud Torah were completed.

Regular meetings will be held every second Monday during the ensuing months and a series of teas will take place throughout the season.

THE LIBRARY CORNER

This is Jewish Book Month in the United States and Canada. The Library Committee of the Jewish Community Centre is pleased to announce that it marks the occasion of Book Month with the opening of the library daily for the reading and borrowing of books. There are now over 600 volumes in the Library, including biographies, novels, histories and valuable books of research, magazines and periodicals.

The latest editions are ordered as soon as they are available, and the community is invited to join the library (at no cost) and become acquainted with the wealth and beauty of Jewish literature.

Book Review

"The Pillar of Salt"

One of the newest books in the Library is the novel "The Pillar of Salt" by Albert Memmi. We have heard, in the last five or six years, a great deal about North African Jewry. We know that many have already been absorbed into the heterogeneous population of Israel. In "The Pillar of Salt", we are given a deep insight into the difficulties and conflicts of an "enlightened" North African Jew who writes, "I am dying through having turned back to look at my own self. It is forbidden to see oneself, and I have reached the end of discovering myself. God turned Lot's wife into a pillar of salt — is it possible for me to survive my contemplation of myself?"

The author writes so convincingly of his problems and emotions, that one feels completely a part of the story, even though the setting is unfamiliar. While reading about the life of Alexandre Mordekhai Benillouche, in the Tunis ghetto, his Bar-Mitzvah, his education, his experience of a violent Arab pogrom, we learn a great deal about the life and culture of these North African Jews, who even at this moment are trying desperately to make their way to Israel. The author makes only a few references to Zionism as part of his experience, but one particularly poignant conversation, in the light of recent events is his discussion with a liberal fellow student . . . an Arab . . . who invites Benillouche to join a political youth movement composed only of native Africans. Benillouche, though pleased, was hesitant, and said, "You consider that we belong to the same nation, Ben Smaan. What about the others? I'm afraid to them we may still be foreigners." To which Ben Smaan replied, . . . "Maybe the times have changed . . . why should we do without the help of the Jews? . . ."

JUVENILES REGISTER FOR FALL AND WINTER ACTIVITIES

Bernie Lesh and Betsy Horwitz are shown helping a group of 6 to 12 year old youngsters register for the Jewish Community Centre's Juvenile Division program of activities which takes place every Sunday afternoon. Deciding on the activities in which they are going to participate are Ahuva Eckstein, Micha Menczer, Mark Goldstein, Max Rubin, Sharon Appotive and Norma Lobel. Ronald Gould is Director of Juvenile Activities assisted by Paul Hollander.

"I can only agree," said Benillouche, ". . . but one cannot force oneself to be accepted as a relative or even as a neighbor. That is the opinion of many Jews for whom the only solution is Zionism."

The Arab replied with anger and scorn, "Zionism! Leave that alone! It's a utopia and one that will arouse the whole Arab world!" . . .

The author's style is simple, yet beautiful, and descriptions so vivid, one feels almost transplanted to the exotic atmosphere of Tunis with its colorful markets, narrow passages, and its bizarre customs. It is recommended reading for young adults and adults, and may be considered a valuable addition to Jewish literature for the knowledge one gains of a civilization which may soon be extinct, if efforts to move these persecuted, poverty stricken thousands of North African Jews to the Jewish state will succeed.

M.B.

The Library Committee wishes to thank the many people who have contributed books during the past few months. The complete list will appear in the next issue.
